What Does "I Don't Like You, but I Love You" Mean? - Laura ... However, if you don't tend it and nurture it, you can grow so far apart that you feel like strangers. This can lead to feeling like you have nothing in common anymore. You need commonality to relate.

Why do people you like, don't like you? - Quora But you already have an image of them which is why sometimes they may not fit in that, and it gives you the feeling that they don't like you. Another possibility about this is you might get over-awed in their presence so you don't act normally which could make them feel you are weird or something. How Not to Care When People Don't Like You - lifehacker.com After all, as Grover says, sometimes it's actually better to be formidable. If people are jealous or whatever, all feelings are welcome. You don't need to go around antagonizing people, but if someone doesn't like you and the feeling is mutual, you don't necessarily have to go out of your way to appease them, either. How Smart People Deal With People They Don't Like - Lifehack That person you don't like is not intrinsically a bad human. The reason you don't get along is because you have different values, and that difference creates judgment. Once you accept that not everyone will like you, and you won't like everyone because of a difference in values, the realization can take the emotion out of the situation.
